OUR FAITH CAN INSPIRE OTHERS

God gives us a one sentence description on David's heart. Acts 13:22b, "I have found David son of Jesse a man after my own heart; he will do everything I want him to do." Wouldn't that be a wonderful thing to hear God say about us? Certain individuals inspire us to have a heart for God and the things of God. In my first full-time ministry I served the Lord alongside of two elders. Both men were honest, transparent, God-fearing, sin-forgiven, people loving, and hard-working servants in the body of Christ. Both men were servants following in the steps of the Great Servant, Jesus. Their ministry in the kingdom touched lives with the love of Jesus, from their own families to the church family. Their faith influenced others to be faithful to God from the farm to the ballfields, from the stock shows to the rodeos, to the way they conducted their business. Faith-filled living caused these believers to radiate with the joy of the Lord. They were walking advertisements, bookends so to speak, to witness that God is good, Christ is Lord, and the Holy Spirit lives. They believed being a Christian was the greatest blessing in the world and wanted others to take the journey of faith. I hope we realize that we can be the person of faith who will speak the right word, at the right time, for the purposes of God in our generation.
