REMEMBER

On September 11, our nation was reminded in a very graphic way, that evil exists in our world. We can still remember where we were when we first heard the news of two airliners crashing into the towers in New York. Every American felt something emotionally as they watched the tragic events unfold in New York, Washington and Pennsylvania. As a result of what we saw and felt, our hearts and prayers have been with the families who directly and indirectly suffered loss. Our prayers continue for the leaders of our country and other countries to desire to live in peace and enjoy freedom. We still pray for the families of the emergency workers and others who gave their lives in an effort to save life. The love for their fellowman was obvious as they rushed into burning building to try to save lives. As believers in Christ, we can understand that kind of love, for Jesus left the glories of Heaven to come to earth to try to save us from the eternal fire. Isaiah 55:6-9 is a passage written in a time when God's people had suffered great destruction at the hands of an enemy. They wondered where God was in their experience and what the future held for them. We are not unlike those people in the days of Isaiah. The prophet said, "Seek the Lord while he may be found." God wills to give us what we cannot attain – eternal freedom from the sin and the evil so prevalent in this world.
