THE INVITATION – “FOLLOW ME”

Jesus invites us to get to know Him, as did His early disciples. The invitation is far more than an opportunity to learn about Him, it is a bold call to experience Christ in us, the hope of glory (Colossians 1:27). We are beckoned not just to consider, but also to taste and experience God working in us to will and to act according to His good purpose (Philippians 2:13). We are called to encounter God's presence and power within us. The teaching of the gospel is more than a record of information about Jesus' life; it is an invitation to experience transformation (Romans 12:2). The consistent message from Jesus came down to two words: "Follow Me." Following Jesus His way is the only way to eternal life. When we reflect on the awesomeness of our Creator and sustainer of life there are several things that should not surprise us. We are not surprised to find God expects us to worship Him and make Bible study a priority. It makes sense that the God whose hands positioned the planets in order, deserves the worship from us whose hands often struggle to get our garages in order. It also should not catch us off guard to discover the Lord has left us a roadmap and extended to us an invitation to know the way to eternal life. I encourage us to fully embrace God's call for us to continue to "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matthew 6:33).
