HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY

God bless mothers. If you are like most mothers, you occasionally have one of those days. As soon as you get up in the morning and sometimes before you get up things begin to fall apart. Something crashes on the floor in the kitchen. One of your children is crying, and the other is complaining or is picking on your other child. This is when mother becomes a referee as well as a judge and corrects the problem. There is not a mother that does not need God's help. I would add there is not a child that does not need the help God provides through a mother. There are so many valuable characteristics of a mother. She is a referee, a judge, a counselor, and a nurse all in one. These job descriptions certainly are not limited to a mother, but these daily tasks often fall upon mothers; washing and the cleaning and the helping with homework, yard work, and a thousand other important jobs. A mother moves the toys out of the driveway, finds the right shirt or dress and retrieves the tennis ball before it is flushed down the toilet. There is one characteristic that stands out in the eyes of God above all the others and it is the mother's attitude toward HIM. Proverbs 31:30, "The woman who fears the Lord is to be praised." In the middle of a world upside down in value, the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised!
