FAITH, LOVE, AND REVERENCE

How would we have liked to live in Noah's day? There was no encouragement to follow God's way outside of his own family. The people in Noah's day walked in the opposite direction of Noah because Noah chose to walk with God. God's way goes against the sinful current of the world's way. And while it is not easy to walk upstream when the sinful public is going downstream, walking with God is always the best way to walk. To live upright in an upside-down world, like Noah did, takes faith in God, love for God, and reverence for God. Faith, love, and admiration for the Creator will propel us to walk with God, regardless of how others walk. Hebrews 11:7, "By faith Noah, when warned about things not yet seen, in holy fear built an ark to save his family. By his faith he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness that comes by faith." Noah received a news from God about a flood that was going to destroy the world of his day. God told Noah to build an ark and Noah obeyed. He believed what God said about the coming flood and he stood firm regardless of the opposition, the accusations, the slander, and held tightly to his hope of escaping the flood waters. His hope was connected to his faith because of the message he had heard from God.
