LOOKING FORWARD TO HEAVEN

God tells us today that faith walkers are “blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ” (Ephesians 1:3). Hebrews 11:9-10 reads, “By faith he [Abraham] made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God.” We who live by faith understand there is more to life than what we see, taste, or touch. Therefore, like Abraham, we are temporary residents looking forward to a special place God has designed for His faith- filled followers. The people who live by sight and not by faith have a view that this world is their only home. People of the world often speak the language of greed, selfishness, immorality, and slander. As faith followers of God, ours is an entirely different language. Thanks be to God we have a message of truth, hope, compassion, kindness, and forgiveness. This world is not our final home; we are just passing through. Faith tells us there is a spiritual realm as real as the physical realm. And when it is time – God’s time, not ours – God will direct us to our eternal home. What will our friends, our children, and grandchildren know about the life of faith by the memories of our lives?
