FAITH IN GOD BRINGS BLESSINGS

Hebrews 11:31, “By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient.” Rahab is described as one whose faith was evidenced by action. For those who have longed for a positive change in the direction of their lives, they should be encouraged by Rahab’s story. Satan tries to get people to think going a better direction in life is not possible. A person might think, “I sinned too much and have gone too far away from God that He would not want me.” Those thoughts are fed our way by Satan who is the father of all lies (John 8:44). No matter how far we have fallen, or how many times we have fallen, when we activate our faith God will gladly pick us up, clean us up, and give us a new life. Rahab’s story is proof of the restoring power of God’s grace over sin. That very same thing could be said of my life and for most others as well. I suspect all of us have, at one time or another, felt like our sins have excluded us from any chance of eternal hope. Thank God for the cleansing, restoring power of God's grace made available to us by faith. Rahab’s faith was a working faith. It was an employed faith that resulted in her being blessed (James 2:24-25).
